HAWORTH Group

Corporate Social Responsibility Report

2025: YEAR IN REVIEW

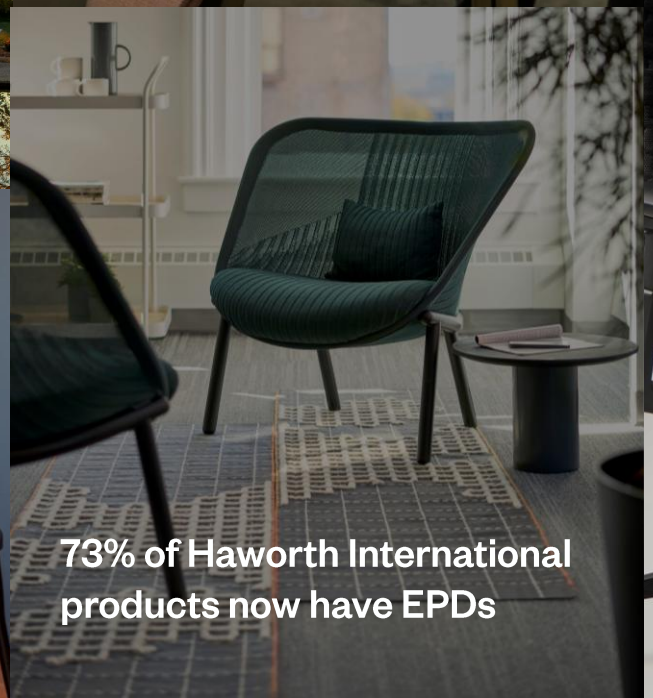

6,049 tonnes of furniture diverted from landfills through circular projects across the globe, realizing massive carbon savings for clients

100% renewable electricity sourcing equal to the amount used across our global operations

Accomplished through a portfolio that combines on-site solar projects, utility green-power programs, and high-quality Energy Attribute Certificates.

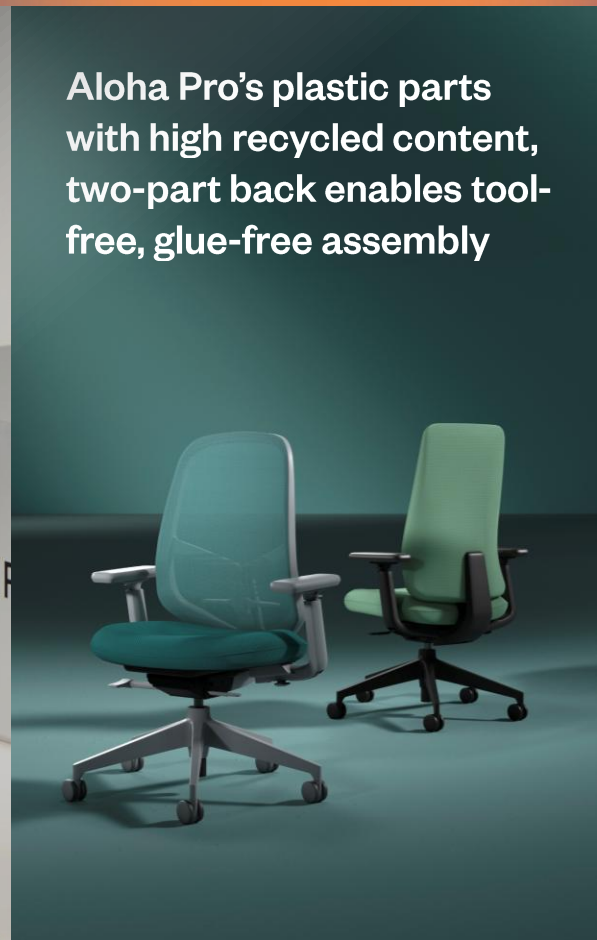

Neurodiversity research to understand and support workplace inclusivity

73% of Haworth International products now have EPDs

Asia-Pacific products 100% BIFMA level 3 certified, making Haworth the only large international manufacturer with regionally certified BIFMA level 3 products from Asia

Aloha Pro's plastic parts with high recycled content, two-part back enables tool-free, glue-free assembly