

Tate

More than twenty years after the launch of the original project, the Tate family of chairs and stools by Jasper Morrison has been completely renewed in its look and finishes to give a touch of freshness and innovation to one of the bestselling products of the Cappellini catalogue. Three different seat models, three different base options and a wide range of colors and finishes make the Tate an extremely versatile object, capable of adapting to the most various contexts, be it a residential space or a hospitality project.

Features

- Stackable chair and stools in two heights, with high or low back
- Tate Color: with aniline painted beech plywood seat; Tate Wood: with oak or mahogany veneered beech plywood seat; Tate Soft: with upholstered beech plywood seat
- Different base options

Design by
