

Pip

Unlike attached tablet arms, the Pip table is a separate surface that can be placed wherever you need it. Lightweight and easy to maneuver, Pip is as efficient as you are. Its slim lines and warm, pleasing design allow it to fit just about anywhere, complementing environment while adding functional personal workspace.

Features

- Pip provides extra personal working space that can easily moved wherever it's needed. Designed by Patricia Urquiola, Pip incorporates materials and craftsmanship of high design, backed by the quality manufacturing you expect from Haworth.
- Flat base and offset leg — Allow the Pip table to fit nearly anywhere and boring the surface comfortably to the user when seated.
- Versatile — Works in a variety of settings, with function and design that complements corporates, hospitality environments, dorm rooms, student lounges, and home offices.
