Emeco Stool Designed by Philippe Starck

The Museum of Modern Art asked Philippe Starck and Emeco to make a simple stool to honor one of Chicago's most prized architects. The circle in a square stool is both practical and sophisticated. Available in three heights and two finishes.

Features

- 80% recycled aluminum base and frame
- Hand-brushed, clear-anodized finish suitable for outdoor use
- Low stool stacks 4 high
- Optional upholstered seat pad available in faux leather
