HAWORTH collection

Navy Officer Designed by Jasper Morrison

This humble, yet proud chair is a symbol of American ingenuity. Designed for the US Navy in the 1940s, Jasper Morrison refined this iconic collection in 2020. Navy Officer provides an extra level of comfort and durability, while following the same 77-step process as the original Navy chair. Choose from side or conference chair, with or without arms.

Features

- Upholstered seat and back
- Side chair available with a four leg base
- Conference chair is height-adjustable with a five star base
