Office Seating

Today's workforce is drawn to well-designed workplaces featuring furnishings that accommodate both focus and collaborative work through choice. Well-appointed spaces with comfortable furniture and balanced aesthetics support human connection—keeping employees engaged, committed, and flexible as the workplace landscape evolves.

Veda™ by Daniele Gollinucci is a light-scale chair that lets people collaborate or focus in comfort. Like a ribbon, it is flexible yet supportive—flawless curvature and minimal mass. Veda conveys form and function, rooted in decades of Italian design heritage.

Flawless Curvature

With its minimal mass, Veda is visually light and elegant, complementing a space and drawing people in. The graceful design is open and light, flexible yet supportive. Veda conveys craftsmanship in design while communicating that an organization cares about its people, culture, and brand.

Just Sit—That's It

Veda seating offers essential comfort with simple adjustments in a design that supports you as you sit. Its one-piece mesh construction with patented hinge system provides synchronized recline for a comfortable sit. Veda fits a wide range of shapes and sizes to promote well-being for everyone at work.

Blend and Balance

With two back options—mid- and high-back—plus two choices in tilt mechanisms, Veda is ideal for multipurpose applications, so people can collaborate or focus in comfort. Its approachable design blends and balances with an array of furnishings in touchdowns, private offices, conference rooms, and collaborative spaces.
