

HAWORTH

Upside

Height-Adjustable Tables

Upside® tables offer a freestanding, height-adjustable solution that provides unexpected value and performance. Available with a standard or extended range of adjustment, Upside tables accommodate a broad range of users to support the ergonomic needs of your entire workforce. With its great variety of worksurfaces and adaptable design, Upside tables bring enhanced flexibility and ergonomic support to any workspace.

Features

- Configurations:
 - 2-leg rectangular: 23" or 29" depth; widths ranging from 46"–82"
 - 3-leg 90° or 120° corner: variety of sizes and shapes in 23", 29" and 23"/29" depths
- Height adjustment ranges:
 - Standard (single-stage): 27.4" – 46.6"
 - Extended (dual-stage): 22.6" – 48.7"
- Built-in gyro-sensor collision detection technology
- 250-lb. dynamic lifting capacity on 2-leg tables; 330-lb. capacity on 3-leg tables
- Ideal for use with Belong™ suspended pedestals; supports worksurface mounted screens, monitor arms, and security drawers
- Wire management options available

- Simple up/down paddle control or OLED paddle with programmable heights and movement reminders
- 2-leg bases available in T-leg or C-leg design; 3-leg corner bases available in C-leg design
- T-leg and C-leg bases have flat, steel feet with mitered edges
- Worksurfaces available in all standard high-pressure laminates
- 3 base colors available on standard model
- Upside is also available in a benching solution

Certifications/Accolades

- BIFMA LEVEL® 3 Certified
- Extended range base meets BIFMA G1 - 2013 Ergonomics Guideline for Furniture
- GREENGUARD Certified