PRODUCT SHEET

HAWORTH®

Openest collection provides adaptable solutions that respond to the ever-evolving nature of work, enticing people to come into the office while making the most of your floorplate. Openest elements gracefully blend to create spaces that are comfortable, warm, and inviting. Feel right at home as you work alone, work together, or simply relax. Power, Workware® collaborative technology solution, and storage can be integrated.

Dynamic spaces for diverse workstyles:

Break up traditional office settings with Openest retreats, for quiet reflection or private interactions with single and double retreats, available as desks or booths. The eight Retreats create a refuge for individual contemplation or private interactions between team members. With so many elements to choose from, you can present a look that's neat and uncluttered while providing a cozy, functional refuge.
