

Giving Innovation Room to Fight

Course Numbers

AIA Course #: HAW-2600 – HSW 1 LU/Intermediate Project Planning & Design/Building Design

IDCEC Course #: CEU-125219 – HSW 1 LU/Intermediate Subject Code: 3. Interior Design Education/1. Instruction

Course Description

Innovation thrives in environments designed for adaptability, collaboration, and human well-being. This course examines how design strategies, such as adaptive reuse, flexible planning and inclusive engagement, create spaces that foster creativity while meeting health, safety, and welfare standards. Participants will explore real-world examples and actionable methods for integrating innovation into projects that advance sustainability, accessibility, and long-term resilience.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

1. Define the Core Principles of Innovation
2. Analyze Adaptive Design Strategies as Catalysts for Innovation and Wellness
3. Apply Lessons from Design-Led Transformation to Broader Economic, Social, and Human Impact
4. Explore the Role of Physical Space in Driving Innovation