

Insights into a Circular Future

Course Numbers

AIA Course #: HAW930 – 1 LU / HSW Designation / Intermediate Project Planning & Design/Building Design

IDCEC Course #: 120595 – 1 LU / HSW Designation / Intermediate Subject Code: 2. Interior Design Education/12. Sustainable and or/Environmental Design

GBCI Course #: 0920029547– 1 CE Hour (Attendees must self-report)

LSBID Course #: 13.929.24 - 1 Learning Unit (Attendees must self-report)

Course Description

This discussion features expert panelists who will share their insights on the transformative power of circular design in the workplace—benefiting organizations and their people. Attendees will learn to identify ways to prioritize circular design to drive more sustainable workplace practices.

This 1-hour course will provide an understanding of circular design and the impact it has in the workplace.

Learning Objectives

1. Understand the trends in circular design that are impacting the workplace
2. Identify the impacts choosing circular design options has on an organization
3. Understand the areas of opportunity in the workplace that circular design can impact
4. Identify ways to prioritize circular design in the workplace

View additional available continuing education opportunities at haworth.com.